

MODESTY IS AN INTEGRAL PART OF IMAAN

Abdullah ibn Umar (Radiyahallahu Anhuma) said, "Modesty and Imaan are inseparable entities. When one of them is lost, the other ceases to exist." (Musannaf ibn Abi Shaybah)

A very clear barometer to judge one's Imaan (Faith) in Allah Ta'aala is one's Hayaa (Modesty). The modesty a person displays in his speech, dressing, conduct and dealings, reflects his consciousness of Allah Ta'aala.

When this consciousness departs, a person does not care how he/she dresses, speaks or acts, etc.

As the Kuffaar have no consciousness of Allah Ta'aala, we witness their shameless behavior, actions and ways. Not content with their personal immorality, they seek to actively promote and display their wickedness for all and sundry as evident by their latest Haraam exhibition of evil.

As Muslims, it is imperative to distance ourselves from such satanic shamelessness and lead the world by exemplifying the life and modesty of our beloved Rasul Sallallahu Alayhi Wa Sallam.
