

Qurbani

BE CAREFUL!!!

The Jamiat has received many complaints regarding unscrupulous individuals fraudulently collecting for Qurbani. Regrettably, it has become quite common that people abuse Islamic obligations for purposes of self enrichment.

The Muslim public is cautioned to be very careful with whom they entrust their Qurbani moneys to. It is safer to pay extra and entrust our Qurbani to reliable individuals and organisations rather than to hear the news that your Qurbani money has been misused.

It is your duty to establish the bona fides and reliability of the people you depute (make Wakeel) to carry out your Qurbani.
