

Alhamdulillah, with the grace of Allah we find ourselves at the beginning of a new academic year. Each year brings with it new challenges and obstacles. Below are a few guidelines which if adhered to, will Insha-Allah ensure a smooth-sailing, successful year.

INTENTION: The most important thing before attempting any task is our intention. As students our intention for learning should be that we attain an education which will assist us to earn for ourselves and our families together with benefitting society.

RESPECT: Being a Muslim entails that we be respectful to our seniors and kind and considerate to our juniors. Our educators deserve special respect for it is through their dedication and teaching that we receive an education.

CHARACTER AND BEHAVIOUR: As students studying in an environment which comprises of learners from various walks of life, our character is extremely important. How we behave and conduct ourselves will go a long way in determining the type of person we will become in life. Our fellow learners should be treated with courtesy as they are our colleagues irrespective of whether they are Muslim or not. Nabi ﷺ has mentioned in a Hadith, “The best amongst you are those who have the best character and manners.” (Bukhari)
