INTRODUCTION

“All praise be to Allah” and peace and blessings be upon His messenger”.

The ayah (verses) of the Qur'aan compiled hereunder are generally known as "Manzil".

Manzil literally means destination or a place to stand. A reason for the naming of these verses of the Qur'an as such is because the benefits of reciting the verses (individually) have been mentioned in the Ahaadith.

Although “Manzil” in collective form is not mentioned in the Ahaadith, but it is a collection of verses and invocations that individually are taken from authentic sources.

Undoubtedly the ayah of the Qur'aan and the forms of duas that are mentioned in the Ahaadith are more effective and beneficial than the wearing of any Taweez.

These benefits vary from, immense rewards and abundant good to protection from various evils and harms. Thus when viewed in a holistic light, it is a condensed way of asking for all of what can be asked for, most significantly guidance to the real destination.

The Manzil is generally recommended as a means of protection against the evil influence of Jinn, witchcraft, sorcery and other evils, be they physical or otherwise.

Thus not only do we wish to promote the recitation of these invocations, we also highly recommend their understanding which in turn facilitates sincere asking from Allah.

It should be borne in mind that the effectiveness of the recital of any ayah or dua as a formula of specific purpose depends on the sincerity and undisturbed and earnest devotion of the reader, as this is what response to du' a' is relative to.

a guidance for those conscious of Allah – (2)
Who believe in the unseen, establish prayer, and spend out of what We have provided for them, (3)

(Al-Baqarah)

And your god is one God. There is no deity [worthy of worship] except Him, the Entirely Merciful, the Especially Merciful. (163)

(Al-Baqarah)

Allah – there is no deity except Him, the Ever-Living, the Sustainer of [all] existence. Neither drowsiness overtakes Him nor sleep. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on the earth. Who is it that can intercede with Him except by His permission?...

He knows what is [presently] before them and what will be after them, and they encompass not a thing of His knowledge except for what He wills. His Kursī extends over the heavens and the earth, and their preservation tires Him not. And He is the Most High, the Most Great. (255)

There shall be no compulsion in [acceptance of] the religion. The right course has become clear from the wrong. So whoever disbelieves in taghūt and believes in Allah has grasped the most trustworthy handhold with no break in it.

And Allah is Hearing and Knowing. (256)

Allah is the ally of those who believe. He brings them out from darkneses into the light. And those who disbelieve – their allies are taghūt. They take them out of the light into darkneses.

Those are the companions of the Fire; they will abide eternally therein. (257)

To Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth. Whether you show what is within yourselves or conceal it, Allah will bring you to account for it. Then He will forgive whom He wills and punish whom He wills, and Allah is over all things competent. (284)

The Messenger has believed in what was revealed to him from his Lord, and [so have] the believers. All of them have believed in Allah and His angels and His books and His messengers, [saying], "We make no distinction between any of His messengers." And they say, "We hear and we obey. [We seek] Your forgiveness, our Lord, and to You is the [final] destination." (285)

Allah does not charge a soul except [with that within] its capacity. It will have [the consequence of] what [good] it has gained, and it will bear [the consequence of] what [evil] it has earned.

"Our Lord, do not impose blame upon us if we have forgotten or erred.

(Al-Baqarah)

Allah witnesses that there is no deity except Him, and [so do] the angels and those of knowledge – [that He is] maintaining [creation] in justice. There is no deity except Him, the Exalted in Might, the Wise. (18)

(Aal-e-Imran)

Say, "O Allah, Owner of Sovereignty, You give sovereignty to whom You will and You take sovereignty away from whom You will. You honor whom You will and You humble whom You will. In Your hand is [all] good. Indeed, You are over all things competent. (26)

You cause the night to enter the day, and You cause the day to enter the night; and You bring the living out of the dead, and You bring the dead out of the living. And You give provision to whom You will without account." (27)

(Aal-e-Imran)

Indeed, your Lord is Allah, who created the heavens and earth in six days and then established Himself above the Throne.

He covers the night with the day, [another night] chasing it rapidly; and [He created] the sun, the moon, and the stars, subjected by His command.

Unquestionably, His is the creation and the command; blessed is Allah, Lord of the worlds. (54)

Call upon your Lord in humility and privately; indeed, He does not like transgressors. (55)

And cause not corruption upon the earth after its reformation. And invoke Him in fear and aspiration. Indeed, the mercy of Allah is near to the doers of good. (56)

(Al-Araaf)

Say, "Call upon Allah or call upon the Most Merciful. Whichever [name] you call – to Him belong the best names." And do not recite [too] loudly in your prayer or [too] quietly but seek between that an [intermediate] way. (110)

And say, "Praise to Allah, who has not taken a son and has had no partner in [His] dominion and has no [need of a] protector out of weakness; and glorify Him with [great] glorification." (111)

So exalted is Allah, the Sovereign, the Truth; there is
