

IF ONLY.....

We are living in a strange time...

The poor want to be rich & show off their wealth. The rich are desperate to find someone who isn't only interested in their money.

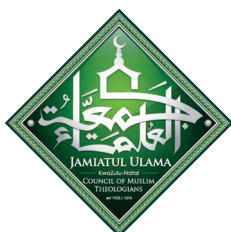

The old use botox to hide the wrinkles and wish to look younger. The young buy clothes & makeup to look older. Those with light-skin pay thousands to get a tan. Those with dark skin spend fortunes to look lighter.

The skinny want to gain weight to feel more beautiful. The overweight wish to shed fat to feel accepted. The tall are sick of standing out. The short look in the mirror every day wanting to be taller.

Parents pray for a little free time away from the kids. Those without children yearn for the gift of a newborn. The married are frustrated with their partners. The singles are fed up of being alone.

The employed are desperate to sit at home and relax. The unemployed are anxiously trying to find a job... If only my nose was straighter! If only my bank balance was bigger! If only... if only...

Everyone thinks "if only" but in reality, only Allah knows what is best for us. We all assume the grass is greener on the other side. We believe that others are living perfect lives, but we forgot that nothing in this Dunya is perfect. Perfection is only in the next life. Rasulullah ﷺ said, "Whoever wakes up in the morning safe & secure in his home, physically healthy & has sufficient food for the day, it is as if the entire world has been provided for him."
